Impediments to Business Growth

As often hear a common statement from SME segment entrepreneurs "Our Business is not growing the way it should, despite having a good product & giving good service". As a Business Consultant working closely with this sector, the top impediments to Business Growth of companies with right offering are:

I know it all syndrome

Business men and small-time entrepreneurs generally are of the mindset that they know and understand all dimensions of their business. Success of business is function of right strategies, right execution plan, timely decision making and right marketing intelligence. In-depth understanding of people management, organisation structuring, marketing mix, finance and technology deployment are prerequisite for success.

Conventional Approach & Resistance to Change

Small Medium Organisations tend to follow conventional methods of doing business. There is deficit of fresh ideas. Risk of inbreeding that is same mind set people taking decisions with low external inputs and organisation structure being hierarchy orientated need to change to Agile flat organisation structure.

Vision & Mission clarity

Vision is there with most entrepreneurs but clarity in mission and its synchronisation with strategies and Go to Market plan is not in place. Even if it is in place, buying in and conviction of success by rightfully executing the plan is not there with management team.

Project Oriented Approach is missing

Business is about future management future is uncertain and hence risky. Without planning, predicting the future is left entirely to chance. It needs better planning and continuous monitoring. Entrepreneur is a pilot of small plane flying in rough weather. You will survive only if you have an expert dash board and you have capability to take fast decisions

Differentiate or Die

Organisation wide clarity is required "How are you different from your competitors?"

In effective use of Marketing Smart tools and technology

Even if product is good, entrepreneurs fail in creating effective marketing campaigns, collaterals or even use effectively the digital marketing platform. Content creation is an art, social media marketing, tele calling, brand building is and art. Wrong use of it will de market your company or your product.

Time management

Entrepreneurs tend to be involved in micro management and transaction, they do not follow management golden nugget of four 'D's Dump, Delegate, Delay, Do'

Lack of Financial Discipline and Funding knowledge

Financing, Banking, Fund Flow management, Cost Control, Pricing & Budgeting decisions need financial experts who have business knowledge, not mere experienced accountants, to guide entrepreneurs in business decisions. If above are taken care of, the resultant would be happy customers, happy vendors, happy employees and happy financial stake holders, no one can stop your growth and success.
